

Pastor V. Bouknight

The Founder of More Than Conquerors Ministries, in Springfield, Massachusetts, Pastor Bouknight is a true woman of God and a prayer warrior with a foundation in the word of God and a mission of holiness. She attended the Charles Harrison Mason Theological School, as well as other institutions of higher learning.

Pastor Bouknight is positioned by God, feeling the heart of God with a ministry geared towards helping hurting women. Seeking to please God, she conducts national and international revivals, all-night prayers, shut-ins, and workshops. She is well-known locally and nationally for teaching the word of God and for her devoted and exceptional altar work.

Prior to establishing More Than Conquerors Ministries, Pastor Bouknight was a member of Carter Memorial Church of God in Christ (COGIC), founded in Baltimore, Maryland where the late Bishop Frank Ellis (chairman of the General Assembly) was the Pastor. While a member of Carter Memorial COGIC, she was the prayer and bible band teacher. In addition, she traveled with the International COGIC Missions Department spreading the gospel in foreign countries, such as England, Brazil, and Haiti as well as the continent of Africa.

Currently she is the President of the State Home and Foreign Missions Department for the First Jurisdiction of Massachusetts Church of God in Christ. She works with the National Altar Workers Guild, the National A.I.M. Intercessory Prayer Team, the National Evangelist Altar Workers Team, and The International Women's Department Altar Workers Team. She was a member of the Prostitution Task Force of Hampden County and has worked with the Hampden County Sheriff's Department assisting women who are committed to improving their lives. She has also shared the Word of God on a radio broadcast show in Springfield, MA. Most recently, she has started an International Call-In Prayer Line that takes place Friday night at midnight, as well as prayer during the week.

Pastor Bouknight is a native of Springfield, Massachusetts, the mother of two sons and a grandmother. Saved, sanctified, and filled with the gift of the Holy Ghost, her sole determination is to do the will of God, compelling souls to "Come to Jesus."

The motto of her ministry is
"COME EXPECTING...LEAVE WITH YOUR EXPECTATION!"
