In November on the 30th day of 2001, Missionary Jackie Watkins, who is one of my spiritual daughters, told me about a dream that she had about me. The outcome was that I was saying, "Great is the Lord my Conqueror, He has never failed me yet, through all my trials and tribulations, He will deliver." She didn't know it, because I was living in Maryland at the time, that God had been dealing with me about starting a ministry so when she told me about the dream that she had dreamed, the Spirit spoke to me and gave me to know that the name of the ministry would be called, "More Than Conquerors Ministries".

As I had consulted the Lord about a name and I felt that He had given me the name, I wanted to be sure that I was moving by the timing of the Spirit of God. I thought to myself, "if that was the Spirit of God that gave me that name, when I go to register the name, I will be able to acquire the EIN number" needless to say, I was successful.

A conqueror is one who subdues the enemy or the opposer with force; an overcomer. The more than conqueror not only subdues the enemy but then takes the spoils, riches and valuables. He or she is an overwhelming victor.

The conquerors truth is based upon battles. One cannot conquer if there is no enemy or war. God promised in the midst of temptation that He would make a way of escape, 1 Corinthians 10:13. If we would prevail, one day we will sit in heavenly places with Jesus, Revelations 3:21. He (God) promises safe passage to heaven through Jesus' intercession, Luke 22:31, 32. He said that the devil will not sift us as wheat because he would sit on the right hand of God and intercede for us.

God will give us to triumph over sin, death, hell and the grave and there is no enemy that God will not ultimately destroy. He said, "Regardless to the trials and pressures, we gain the victory over tribulations or severe sufferings, distresses, persecutions, famine, nakedness, peril or danger or sword." None of these things can cause us to turn away from the love of Christ. We are victorious not around them or without them but we are victorious in them. They make our love for Christ stronger. They make us more durable, which enables us to take something.

2 Cor. 4:17 says, Light afflictions or present troubles are small and won't last very long. They produce for us a glory that vastly outweighs the present trouble and this glory will last forever.

We are conquerors not by our own strength but by the power of God. We can endure suffering with hope and not only do we know that we are victorious because of Jesus' victory but we come out with something other than just victory. The devil many times takes our things or has things that God says belong to us. In winning against him, we prove to him that Jesus is alive in us and that we have power from God to be victorious over him.

The revelation for this ministry is that God is going to use me to build an army for Him to go into the enemy's camp and take the souls out and bring them to the Lord. Once they come out, I will be able to cultivate the valuables that God has given to them to build up His kingdom, while destroying the devil's kingdom. I have vision for this ministry that include clothes giveaways, after school tutoring, single and marriage ministries as well as building up the youth in biblical principles as that will make them better adults in our society.

Ultimately, showing people the love that God has for them. As we are seeing the signs of the soon coming King, we must spread the gospel of Jesus Christ and allow people to see that the only way to escape the wrath of God is to accept Jesus into their hearts and obey him. In obeying him, one can be led to heaven. I would like for people to see that there is joy in serving God and that there is hope in Him. We don't live in despair when God is present within our hearts.

Also, I endeavor to teach people that God is a present help in the time of trouble and that the safest place for any of us is in His hands because He loves us so much.

Lastly, to teach men and women that if they can win the battles on earth against the devil that he or she can have an eternal resting place in heaven. Hell was not made for us but for the devil and the angels that went along with his rebellion against God. If we fight down here, we will one day never have to fight again and knowing that is what makes us, More Than Conquerors.
